Update 12/23/08: Almost ALL of the Radio Bam episodes have a full synopsis! I will let you know when they're all finished. A big thanks goes out to TryedItDied for all of his hard work on getting these done. Drop him a line and say THANKS! Get the episodes here ...just make sure to register. Oh, and that brings me to my next topic: Registering. I get a lot of emails wondering why they need to register to get the downloads. Well, there are several reasons. First, bandwidth. It's not cheap and when bots can get to the mp3s, it's bad news. Also, I feel that if you want to get the episode you should also be able to participate in a "forum" type setting. By registering it's easy to post comments and discuss with others on episodes. Also, if something really cool ever came up (like a surprise X-mas episode), I could notify all of the members via email. So THERE. That's why it's important to register. Thanks for your time. Oh, BTW, check out Boards of Canada ...they're amazing. Update 12/02/08: I have fixed the registration issues. Sorry about the inconvenience. You can now create a new account here.
